MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—B. W. Buford, of Elmwood, Tenn., killed himself because his sweetheart said she was too young to marry.

—The Richmond Register announces the approaching marriage of Richard White Miller, of that city, to Miss Susie Burne Patton, of Huntsville, Ala.

—Miss Emma Grimsley, a girl of 18 years, living at Nevada, Mo., drank a vial of chloroform because her lover had broken his engagement with her, and then soared to the saccharine subsequence.

—Miss Bettie Drye, formerly of Hustonville, but now of Caldwell, Kansas, will be married on the 15th of next month to Mr. Charles Clarke, a prominent young merchant of the same town. Miss Bettie has many friends here who wish her a bright wedding day and a brighter and happier life afterward.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mrs. Kate Hays received a telegram from independence, Mo., stating that her mother, Mrs. Almada Shumate, was dead. She was 75 years old and had been a sufferer from dropsy for more than a year. Besides a husband, Mrs. Shumate leaves three daughters, including Mrs. Hays.

At the sea level water boils at 212° Fah., under ordinary atmospheric pressure, which is stated to be 14.7 (nearly 15) pounds to the square inch. If the atmospheric pressure be reduced or removed, by means of a vacuum apparatus the boiling point is reduced—to 100 Fah., or less. If the pressure be increased, as it is in a steam boiler, the boiling point of the water is proportionately increased—to 350 Fah., or more. It must also be remembered that as we ascend above the sea level the atmospheric pressure grows gradually less and the boiling point of water is correspondingly lower. Water boils readily on Mount Washington at 200° Fah., and upon Mont Blanc at 185° Fah.—Bulletin of Pharmacy.

The molecules of ice are bound together by a very great force. To separate them, that is, to melt, say one pound of ice at 32° F., requires a power of 100,000 foot pounds, or a power equal to lifting the ice to a height of over 20 miles, or the exertion for one minute of over three-horse power.

A GREAT UPSISING.

The Surprising Material and Moral Strength of the Loyal States in 1861.

As the years roll by we get a proper perspective of the civil war, and as we have leisure and opportunity to compare it with other wars we realize the importance of one fact too often overlooked. In our impatience and criticism in 1861-5 we forgot that no war of modern times had been waged by revolution with rules so little prepared by experience. The soldiers of the Union in 1861 were absolutely new to the art of war, and by an extraordinary combination of circumstances the civil rebels were at the same time almost devoid of experience in practical administration.

The Republican party was led by very new men, whose almost entire experience had been in political opposition. They were indeed ardent patriots, but so far as experience in governing went they were in 1861 just like passengers who might suddenly be called to take charge of a ship going to pieces beneath their feet in a storm which made three seasoned mariners pale.

Suddenly they were called upon to deal with the most embarrassing complications in diplomacy, the most difficult problems in finance, the most subtle and complex issues in constitutional law, and to meet demands for military purposes which would have staggered the most powerful monarchies in Europe. Russia, Austria, England and France had in turn owned their incapacity to suddenly mobilize a quarter of a million men. The United States, which had but 16,000 men in its regular army in April, 1861, had before the frosts of autumn fell nearly 700,000 men armed and equipped and in camp or on the march.

And with what success? Comparisons are in this case indeed eloquent. Great Britain's administrative system confessedly broke down in supplying less than 60,000 men in the Crimea. In the winter of 1861 the Washington administration supplied 600,000 men, scattered along a line of 2,500 miles from the mouth of the Potomac to New Mexico. Before the war a revenue of $60,000,000 a year alarmed the nation. In a few months Secretary Chase had to raise $600,000,000 a year, and soon had to double that.

In naval warfare the Americans of April, 1861, were as children, yet in eight months they had established a naval blockade the most thorough in history, and in eight more their rams, monitors and other ironclads had revolutionized naval warfare.

The energy of the north was indeed wonderful, its reserve of strength vastly greater than itself suspected. To quote a western byword, "We ached with strength." No country in the world was ever stronger for war purposes than were the adhering states in 1861.

And back of all the material resources were the soul, the moral vigor, the fierce and high resolve that the time had come to settle the great issue once for all. Only twice in all history has there been anything at all approaching it—the uprisings of Holland against Spain, and of France in her early revolutionary era. Time, instead of lessening, heightened our appreciation of that great and truly national movement. The perspective of 30 odd years gives us a more inspiring view of the great uprising of the north.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore will preach at Logan's Creek at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

—Union services will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. Services by Rev. A. V. Sizemore.

—Rev. H. C. Morrison's meeting at Cynthiana continues, with 30 additions, and according to his statement four "sanctifications" are among the number.

—Rev. F. P. Davenport, rector of Calvary church, Memphis, the leading Episcopal church of the city, preached a sermon Sunday in which he advocated the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday.

—The Northern Presbyterian Assembly, through Dr. Young, of Danville, took exactly opposite grounds on the question of women taking a public part in services than the Southern Assembly did, the Bible to the contrary notwithstanding.

—The meeting at the Christian church by Elder J. S. Sweeney is still going on. There have been 8 confessions to date, 5 of whom were baptized (immersed, as our Christian friends prefer to say) in the baptistry last night after services.—Somerset Republican.

—The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly is pronounced in its opposition to "lascivious" dancing and recommends that when all other means have failed the session shall excommunicate an offending member. It is also recommended that the session must absolutely enforce the injunction of Scripture forbidding women to speak in churches (1 Cor. 14 34), or in any way failing to observe that relative subordination to men that is taught in 1 Cor. 11-13 and other places.

How MODERN CREMATION IS CONDUCTED.—The body, simply clad and placed in a coffin, is not put into the fire, as many persons suppose, but into a so-called chamber of clay, little larger than itself, which is wholly closed, except for a few small perforations in the top for the escape of the gases, which are conducted through the fire and consumed. This chamber is heated to a temperature of about 2,000 degrees. Nothing but heated air touches the body. It lies absolutely undisturbed, maintaining its perfect shape until the last moment, when the beautiful rosy color it has gradually assumed changes to white and it instantly falls together in the form of pure ashes.

I wrote a long letter to Tom today, and told him that although I was only a young girl, he could always rely on my friendship. I told him I hoped he would always slum temptation and work hard to make some good woman happy. I put in a postscript this lovely sentiment, which I found in the quotation book:

"To thine own self be true, And it must follow as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

The June number of Fetter's Southern Magazine (Fetter & Bush Publishing Co., Louisville, Ky.), is replete with bright short stories, essays and poems. Among the story writers are Madison Cawein, George Griffith Fetter and Mrs. A. D. Sayre. The essayists are J. Soule Smith and Calvin S. Brown, while Angelo Crippen contributes notes from the great Columbian Exposition in her usual entertaining style.

TUNNELING THE SIMPLON.—Work on the new Simplon tunnel has been commenced. When completed it will be the longest tunnel in the world. It will extend from Brieg, in Switzerland, to Isella, in Italy, and its total length will be 12 1/2 miles. It is expected that from 8 to 9 years will be occupied in the construction of the tunnel.

—As a rule, a double-gaited horse is faster as a pacer than as a trotter. Many a phenomenal pacer has been lost to the turf through the foolish, mistaken notion of "converting" him. Had Smuggler, 2:15 1/4, Edwin Forrest, 2:18, and Bonsetter, 2:19, been permitted to take their chosen gait, they doubtless would have been great pacers.—Turf, Field and Farm.

"What will you have sir?" said the pert waitress.

"Something to heat," replied the English visitor to the restaurant.

"Suppose you try a flat-iron," said the P. W., who thought she was being gayed.

The $3,000,000 which the hat manufacturers of the country have got to hand over to the inventor of the sweat band used on hats affords a striking illustration of the value of genius when it makes a hit.

Love life, but love it not for vulgar pleasures, for miserable ambitions. Love it for what in it is important, grand, divine.—Silvio Pellico.

Among the latest forms of entertainment is one they call "an evening with poets." Eating has no place on the programme.—Buffalo Courier.

It is all plain sailing for the poor girl when the jaunty little sailor hats are in fashion.—Piscayune.

—Charles Spoonamore is doing a splendid business with his saddle stallion, Screamer, and hardly a day passes that he does not book a mare. With his jack, Joe Embury, he is also doing well, and notwithstanding the large number of jacks around him, he will make even a bigger season than usual.

—An Indiana cow on a test gave 218 pounds and 2 ounces of milk in 7 days (about 120 quarts) and made 22 pounds and 6 ounces of butter. —Some time since Mrs. W. T. Stephenson had a nice black cashmere shawl, which some one took and left a common one in its place. She knows this is purely accidental, but would be happy to give the owner her own, if she will return the one lost. It has a three-cornered darn in one corner.

—Miss Annie Sigler, the handsome daughter of Mrs. M. V. Sigler, was married last week in Indiana to a Mr. Lord. Of bright and cheerful disposition, she is a favorite with our people. We truly hope that in her "Lord" she may realize her fondest hopes and live a useful, happy life. She will visit her home here in July.

—Mr. P. D. Hardy, of Pineville, a young man of sterling qualities, was here this week in the interest of the "self-calculating scales." Messrs. Perkins and Carson, our wide-awake merchants, each purchased a pair. We heard a lovely young lady say if she could pull the scales over his eyes, she would think herself quite fortunate, and we will add, he would be quite fortunate if he could win her.

Mrs. John Edmiston is in feeble health, a fact very sad to her many friends, who love her for her many lovely traits of character. Her devotion to her family is perfect. Her grown children never enter the house without receiving pleasant smiles and embraces, and mother with them is the angel of home.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Nannie Dudderar Soden—Died May 24, 1892.

One long, weary year ago to-day the grim messenger of Death came to my peaceful, happy home and robbed it of its sunlight, its happiness and its angel—my mother, leaving father and I alone to lament the loss of one who was the author of the happiness of our home. O mother, though young in years, my boyish heart, fresh in its love for you, and full of tender memories of your loving kindness, laments your absence with fond affection true, and still holds its love for you, sacred to your loving memory. True, I have still left me the watchful care, the protection, the love and affection of my kind and loving father, whom God in His infinite goodness and mercy has spared to me, still there is a form, a face, a loving voice, a kiss, a fond embrace I miss at home, which none but a mother can take or give, and which place in the home and at the fireside, in the love and affections of a devoted son, none but a mother can fill. My dear, departed, sainted mother, I miss you! Though absent I love you; though sleeping in the arms of Death, you still live in heart and memory, and ever will.

Sweet angel mother, absent one, In God's bright home of joy, And hear the prayer of him you loved, Your lonely, loving boy, Look down on father as he weeps, The weary hours away, And on your boy who gave you up One year ago to-day.

Oh! sainted mother, my young heart, Still holds its love so true, Though heavy with its weight of grief, Is faithful still to you. I pray the prayer you taught my lips, And nightly shed a tear, Of loving memory when I say, Oh God bless mother dear!

The light, the life of home is gone, No mother's face I see, But God has spared me still one friend, A father lives with me. He loves me for my mother's sake, You who so often smiled Upon my face and blessed him with, Its loving boy, his child.

Oh mother, mother, see these tears! That dim your darling's eyes, And hear his pleading voice of love, As he looks to the skies. Watch over me, guide my footsteps, God, While I in life remain, That when I'm called from earth, I'll see My mother's face again.

EVERY FRIDAY.

ONE of the most disgraceful scenes that ever occurred in a law-making body was enacted in the Kentucky House a day or two ago. The anti-strike bill, which makes it an offense for any person or persons to interfere with the traffic or transportation of freight or passengers on any railroad, punishable by fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200 and imprisonment of from 10 days to six months, was being discussed and was championed by Representative Kremer, of Louisville, and opposed by Mr. Botts, of Shelby. In his remarks the latter facetiously referred to the former as a tool of the corporations and as the "missing link," so long undiscovered. Roaring with rage Kremer sprang to his feet and applied such epithets, including the most opprobrious of all, as only a "wharf rat" could. Botts attempted to get to him, but was prevented, when Kremer sent for his gun and started into the hall to use it, when he was forcibly detained by the sergeant-at-arms on order of the Speaker. Such exhibitions bring further odium upon the State and furnish another reason for the immediate dissolution of a body which has brought only evil, and that continually, from the very hour of its assembling.

Much interest is manifested over the rumor that Miss Blanche Culbertson, of New Albany, Ind., is to marry Mr. Leigh French, of Minneapolis, to whom her father was bitterly opposed. The cause of the interest is in the fact that should this lady decide for love she loses lots of lucre—a million or more, her hard-hearted father's will providing that she shall be cut off without a cent of his large estate if she marry the object of his especial aversion. Women usually go by contraries, but if Miss Blanche knows which side of her bread is buttered she'll never give up a million to marry any man on this maccosm.

The transfer of the treasury from a republican to a democratic treasurer, will begin June 1, when D. H. Morgan, of Connecticut, will succeed the present incumbent. All the money will have to be counted or weighed and it will take the committee, with the assistance of 40 clerks and 20 laborers, 24 months to complete the count. When the democrats turned the treasury over to the republicans four years ago, the same laborious job had to be performed, when it was found that every cent chargeable to the treasury was accounted for.

Onto statesmen of the republican variety seem to be playing in bad luck this season. Gov. McKinley's financial troubles are fresh in the minds of the newspaper readers and now comes news that Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Foster, formerly known as "Calico Charley," has "busted" wide open. His failure is said to have been caused by losses on speculations of various kinds, in which he dropped nearly a million dollars. A bank at Fostoria and several stock companies are carried down by the crash.

The New York World has a half-page picture of Marie-Eulalie-Francoise D'Assise-Marguerite-Roberte-Isabelle-Francoise De Paule-Christine-Marie De La Piete, etc., which shows that the "Infanta" is a handsome woman, as she has proved herself to be a sensible one, notwithstanding her outlandish and unpronounceable name.

Gov. ALTWOLD, of Illinois, sent his message of welcome to Gov. Brown by relays of bicycles. The distance from Springfield to Frankfort is 384 miles and it was carried in about 30 hours, thus demonstrating the superiority of this mode of carrying messages over the horse courier system that has prevailed in the army.

THREE negro boys were hung at Tuck-agee, Ala., Friday, for criminal assault on a white lady, the first legal hanging for such offense ever in the State. Mob usually dispose of such cattle without the intervention of the slow machinery of the law.

SECRETARY HOKE SMITH has rendered a decision which limits pensions to disabilities preventing the applicant from manual labor. It is thought that this will reduce payments fully $20,000,000, and the good Lord knows they need reduction.

THREE seems some doubt yet that Mr. C. H. Rhodes will get the collectorship, but we have dollars to wager against doughnuts that he will fill the position, notwithstanding he is opposed by both Senators.

—Reports returned by 101 counties in this State show that 157,609,939 pounds of tobacco were grown by them last year, an increase of $885,851 over the previous season's crop. The 18 counties which have not reported, it is thought, will bring up the aggregate to 191,624,283 pounds, against 183,028,432 for 1891.

—The late A. V. DuPont left no will and the great fortune of Louisville's magnate will be distributed under the law. —Rev. Graham and wife were run down and killed at Milner, Ga., by the fast train on the Central railroad known as Nancy Hanks.

—The Baltimore Sugar Refinery in that city was destroyed by fire. The loss is over $1,000,000 and the insurance between $300,000 and $500,000.

—John Light shot and killed Ephraim Dean at Burgin Sunday evening. They had trouble over the settlement of a partnership. Light escaped.

—A monster snake was killed in Cedar Bass Lake, near Knox, Ind., that measured 36 feet in length, was three feet thick and weighed nearly a ton.

—There is not a living man now who was ever tried for treason against United States. Hon. Castner Hanway, of Nebraska, was the last one and he has just died.

—Frank Tonnies, of Cincinnati, hung himself in a loft and requested that his body be sent home as a birth-day present to his wife. This is probably the best present Mrs. Tonnies has received in years.

—It is reported by some of the lieutenants of Senator Sherman that he will not oppose ex-Gov. Foraker any further in Ohio politics. This means a desertion of Gov. McKinley, with the State convention but two weeks off.

—Alexander Russell Webb, who has undertaken to introduce Islamism in this country, says he is negotiating for the purchase of large tracts of land in Southern States, on which he proposes to plant Mohammedan colonies.

—Yesterday's Washington dispatches stated that Charles H. Rhodes would be appointed collector and that the chief deputyship would be tendered to Mr. John H. Welch, of Nicholasville. The dispatch said the appointment would be made yesterday.

—Over 200,000 visitors took advantage of the opening of the World's Fair Sunday. The Kentucky and a few other State headquarters remained closed. Saloons and hotel bars, which have heretofore been doing an immense business on Sunday, it is reported, were almost deserted.

—Numerous efforts have been made to have Collector Capps leave Muhlenberg county, so that no official would be there empowered to make the levies for the railroad tax, but he refuses to do so. Bitter feeling has been engendered against him by his attempts to collect this tax, and when the Deputy Marshals leave the county Capps will take his departure at the same time.

Hot and cold baths day or night at Jesse Thompson's shop. When you want to feel refreshed and better in every way go and take one.

Our good democratic friend, Mr. Geo. T. Farria, now of Lancaster, but formerly of Laurel, is spoken of as a probable applicant for the post office in Lancaster.

The death of Judge James B. McFerran, of Boyle, which occurred Friday in Louisville, where he went for treatment, created surprise and deep regret among our citizens, who held him in high esteem.

There will be a reunion of the old Mexican soldiers in Stanford June 15th, and Capt. Jack Bosley asks us to extend an invitation to every veteran in the State to attend. He also asks that the newspapers give notice of the reunion.

Spring takes her departure to-morrow, that is to say springtime has come and gone, but if spring has tarried "in our midst" more than a couple of days at a time our weather observer has failed to record it. Get thee gone, thou misnamed spring. May we never look upon thy like again.

The Corbin Hotel, at the junction of the Knoxville and Cumberland Valley Divisions of the L. & N., will be sold at public auction to-morrow, 31st, including its furniture. This is a very desirable property and will no doubt be much sought after. See notice in another column.

The members of the M. P. C. Society will give a social for the benefit of Bro. Barnes at Judge Santley's residence, on Thursday evening, June 1st. Refreshments will be served in the yard, which will be lighted and furnished with seats, ice cream, strawberries and cake for 25c. Everybody is cordially invited to come and spend a pleasant evening in a good cause.

STANFORD is getting giddy and for the next two or three weeks she'll have all the amusements she can stand. The Band Concert, Rentz's Circus, the College concert, the commencement, a meeting of the Glee Club, the declamatory contest, a hop, and so on, go to make up a round of gayety seldom known in the staid old town, which seems to be taking on a new lease of life in every way.

JUNE SEVENTH.—Prof. and Mrs. M. G. Thomson, of Christian College, were here Friday arranging for the printing of their commencement and other programs. The commencement will occur June 7th and there will be three graduates, Misses Emma Pruitt, Anna Johnston and Bertie Enoch, the latter the valedictorian. After the exercises a supper will be given for the benefit of the library, to which a small admission will be charged.

MR. D. S. JOHNSON, of the West End, has a couple of horses on his place that are indeed old residents. One is 32 years old and he was used by Mr. Johnson in his courting days and afterward for his children to ride to school, and the other, which has just passed the 20th mile post, has been a work horse all of his life. Mr. Johnson put in 30 acres of corn with him this year and the old fellow is as spry and as active as a 3 year old.

THE CIRCUS is coming and the small boys are happy. A good many old heads are glad too that they will have the opportunity of setting aside business and for a few hours enjoy the sights that will be seen under Rentz & Co.'s canvas on Saturday next. Of course there are those who under the weight of years have forgotten frivolity and can see nothing but the useless expenditure of time and money in going to a show, but this should not keep the little fellows away. It is an innocent pleasure and one not frequently had here. The young ones have set their hearts on going and don't disappoint them by keeping them away.

MR. M. F. NORTH, who has been frequently spoken of as a candidate for the Legislature, announces himself for the office, subject, of course, to the action of the democracy, for he is a democrat of the purest ray serene. He is also a clever and accomplished gentleman, who would make us an admirable representative. That he means business is shown in the fact that he has arranged a long list of appointments for speaking, beginning with Stanford, June 5th, at 1:30 p. m. An invitation to his opponent, Mr. Harvey Helm, is extended for a division of time and the welkin will no doubt ring with oratory for the next month or two.

Puck and Kentucky State Souvenir Spoons at Danks', the jeweler.

To day and to-morrow the C. & O. will sell tickets to Richmond, Va., and return for $15 on account of the re-interment of Jefferson Davis' remains in Holly-wood Cemetery. G. W. Barney, D. P. A., J. G. Cramer, C. T. A., Lexington.

JOHN BAKER, who has been running a crap game at Moreland for quite awhile, was arrested Saturday by Marshal Devers, of Hustonville. Deputy Sam Menefee went after him and placed him in jail Sunday. His trial will not come off till circuit court.

GOUGH & GOUGH, of Somerset, have assigned, with liabilities of only $2,355 and nominal assets of $5,000. Close times and bad collections caused the trouble. One of the firm, Hon. Ezra S. Gough, formerly represented this county in the Legislature. R. M. Gough, the other member of the firm, is also from this county.

THE young ladies have already sold a large number of tickets to the Stanford Gold Band Concert at Walton's Opera House, Friday, June 2. A tip-top entertainment will be given and as the proceeds are to be used in purchasing handsome uniforms for the band, our citizens should and will extend a liberal patronage. Secure your tickets early and avoid the rush.

OUR former compositor, Mr. George C. Keller, Jr., who is now in the poultry business, is getting up a reputation as a surgeon. He had a thoroughbred chicken sick the other day and with his knife began to cut on him. In his crop he found two large bugs, a gold dollar and a marble. He removed them, sewed the crop up and the patient is now apparently as well as it ever was.

THE commencement exercises of Stanford Female College will begin next Sunday with a sermon at the Christian church by Rev. W. E. Arnold, of the Methodist church. The concert will occur the Thursday night following and the final exercises the next night, Friday.

As heretofore announced, there will be three graduates: Misses Laura McAnally, Jennie Summers and Sue Baughman.

OUR kids did as we predicted. They wiped up the earth with the Lancaster first nine Friday afternoon, the score standing 24 to 21. Our boys say they had great odds against them, as the umpire gave them little or no show and they were never given the benefit of a doubt. The Lancaster boys are much larger than our "kids," but not equal to the occasion when they cross bats with them. The battery for the Stanford boys was Sibold and Sibold. Rowan Santley pitched a few innings, however.

THE Masonic Lodge here is in a flourishing condition and hardly a night passes that one or more members are not enrolled. On Saturday night the Royal Chapter degree was conferred on Messrs. A. J. Pike and Tilford Gilpen, of Brodhead, and J. H. Hilton, of Rowland. A large number of the members were present and the work was done with much impressiveness and satisfaction. After the lodge closed a grand banquet was enjoyed at the Carpenter House, when the following invited guests were present: A. R. Penny and wife, L. B. Cook and wife, J. W. Flowers and wife, C. J. Thompson and wife, R. L. Martin and wife, Sherman Napier and wife, T. W. Hamilton and wife, W. R. Holly and wife, T. W. Geer and wife, S. M. Owens and wife, D. W. Vandever and daughters, Capt. Bibb and daughter, A. A. McKinney and Mrs. Courts, Mrs. T. B. Meals, Miss Lizzie Montgomery, J. W. Carrier and wife, John M. Hall, Robert McPherson, G. L. Penny, David Burgess, G. D. Hopper, W. R. Carson, B. G. Alford, H. J. Darst, W. T. Hall, Rev. A. V. Sizemore, E. North, B. Smith, F. M. Ware, James Milburn, Tilman Gilpen, Rev. A. J. Pike, J. H. Hilton, C. J. Emrick.

THE rain poured down Friday night, but that did not prevent the Court House from being comfortably filled with people, who never tire of listening to the sweet gospel that the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes propounds so convincingly and so eloquently. It is doubtful if another man in this section could have drawn such a crowd on such a night. Taking the 5th chapter of Genesis, which gives the genealogy, age and death of patriarchs from Adam to Noah, and which to the average reader is as dull as a last year's almanac and as dry as a powder-house, he preached a powerful sermon to show that having borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear image of the heavenly—predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son. Among the songs sung by Misses Marie and Georgie during that service were "Jesus Lover of my Soul" and "I Shall be Satisfied," and they were given in such a sweet and touching manner that the audience seemed to partake of the spirit of the words and music and to be carried away with the almost unearthly tenderness of the melody. The rain of Sunday night interfered but little with the crowd, which has steadily increased from the first service. It will create genuine regret when it is known Bro. Barnes will likely preach his last sermon here to-morrow, Wednesday, night. He will remain over to the "sociable" to be given in his honor and for his benefit by the young ladies and will then likely go to Lebanon and hold a meeting.

MAIL.—Hustonville had a severe hail storm Friday afternoon.

"FAIR, slightly warmer," was Brother Harrington's prediction yesterday.

Born the public school and the Academy on the hill will close Saturday, June 10th.

Five different sizes Leonard ice chests. Will save you 200 per cent. of your ice bill. W. H. Wearen & Co.

THE young people were preparing to "storm" Miss Glenn Bibb last night, but for goodness sake don't say we told you.

ON account of Decoration Day the post office will be open to-day from 8:30 to 10 A. M. and from 2 to 3 P. M. Mails will be dispatched as usual, however.

PICTURES, PICTURES!—The Rowland Gallery is in motion and playing a land office business. Come on, come all. Satisfaction guaranteed. Frank Cordier.

Geo. C. KELLER brought us in some cherries from Pink Cottage yesterday, one of the largest measuring 3 1/2 inches in circumference. They are of the Gov. Wood variety.

With the the honorable exception of our Crab Orchard correspondent, we were forgotten yesterday. May the good Lord forgive them and make them more thoughtful in the future is our earnest prayer.

At last, after two years of weary waiting, we are to have a circus. Rentz & Co.'s United Monster Railroad Shows will spread its tents here next Saturday, June 3. Read the two-column notice in this paper and goad on.

At a meeting of the directory held Saturday afternoon a committee was appointed to contract for water to be run from the water works to Buffalo Spring Cemetery. It is in the discretion of the committee as to the number of hydrants.

WHILE a shoe drummer had his samples spread in the sample-room of the Myers House, a sneak thief entered and took four of his best samples. As a shoe man carries but one shoe for each sample the one-legged men of this vicinity will be closely watched.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES tells the following fish story, which takes the rake so far as heard this spring: While seining at Sanibel Island, a party of fishermen caught one drag 1,070 fish, weighing 14 to 15 pounds each. Frequently fish weighing 150 pounds are caught with hook and line.

OUR excellent tonsorial artist, Jesse Thompson, is much grieved over the loss of a sweet singing mocking bird. He had just bought it on Saturday and that night the boy who cleans up the shop carelessly left the cage containing it on a chair and during the night the rats killed it. The bird cost Jesse in a trade about $12.

A DISPATCH to the Enquirer from Louisville states that Charles Ingersoll Maury, who committed suicide by drowning in the Ohio River, left in his will $3,000 to Miss Lillie, the handsome daughter of Mr. Geo. Lindenberger, of Louisville. Miss Lindenberger has frequently visited here and by marriage is related to Mr. James P. Bailey, Mrs. G. B. Cooper and others.
